

ATHLETICS :: BOWLING :: BASKETBALL :: RACING

STEVENSON AT PENN
FOR ANOTHER YEARCan Enter With New Classes
Next Fall.

STARTS WITH CLEAN SLATE

By Withdrawing Before Examinations
He Avoids Getting Conditions.
Used His Head.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 1.—Vincent Stevenson is very likely to play football for the University of Pennsylvania next fall, despite all reports to the contrary.

To begin with, Stevenson has not been dropped from the university for failure to work off conditions or for any other reason. The clever little quarterback and brainy football general withdrew from the university on January 6, and with no conditions against his name for the very simple reason that he did not continue in the university long enough to take examinations which would have given him conditions. By withdrawing he avoided the possibility of getting these conditions, which might have proved too great a handicap for him, but there is no reason why he should not re-enter the university with next fall's incoming classes and take up the same course of study that he was pursuing when he dropped out, and even re-enter the same class he was in when he withdrew—1936 college.

Free From Conditions.

Stevenson seems to have used his head and done a little thinking, just as he has always done on the football field. Had he remained he very likely would have been debarred from playing football next fall because of the many conditions, while by withdrawing and starting all over again next fall he will be eligible to play.

Stevenson will stand in precisely the same position as Cartmell, the clever sprinter, who returned to Penn last fall after having dropped a term. Cartmell is now a good student, and there is every reason to believe that Stevenson will be a good student, too. Stevenson's withdrawal has been too much carried away by football, and has made the mistake of giving the game more thought than his studies, but he is not the first man to blunder in this way. For a fact, he is only one of a number who have so erred at the university during the past year.

To Eschew False Friends.

Stevenson, too, has had a number of so-called friends, who have taken up about as much of his time as has football, leaving him very little opportunity for study. By breaking away from these false friends, as well as football, for a period Penn's famous quarterback may come back to the university next fall a better man in every way, for he has seen the error of his ways, and is not likely to make the same mistake twice.

KAUFFMAN-RUHLIN
BOUNCE NEAR PHILLY

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—The first heavyweight battle to be fought at Tom O'Rourke's new Tuxedo Athletic Club, just outside of Philadelphia, will have as principals, big Al Kauffman, of California, and Gus Ruhlin, the Akron Giant, who has been unable to get on a bout with any of the big fellows for some time.

Billy Delaney, manager of Kauffman, sent O'Rourke a telegram yesterday, offering to match Kauffman against Ruhlin in a twenty-round bout at the Tuxedo Club the latter part of next month. O'Rourke immediately sent Delaney a reply, stating that he would be glad to put Kauffman on against Ruhlin, and that if he was willing to accept 50 per cent of the gross receipts the match was on. O'Rourke expects a reply from Delaney today accepting the terms.

Y. M. C. A. DEFEATED
COMPANY A QUINT

The Young Men's Christian Association basketball five won from the Company A quint in a slow game last night at the Washington Light Infantry Armory by 23 to 10.

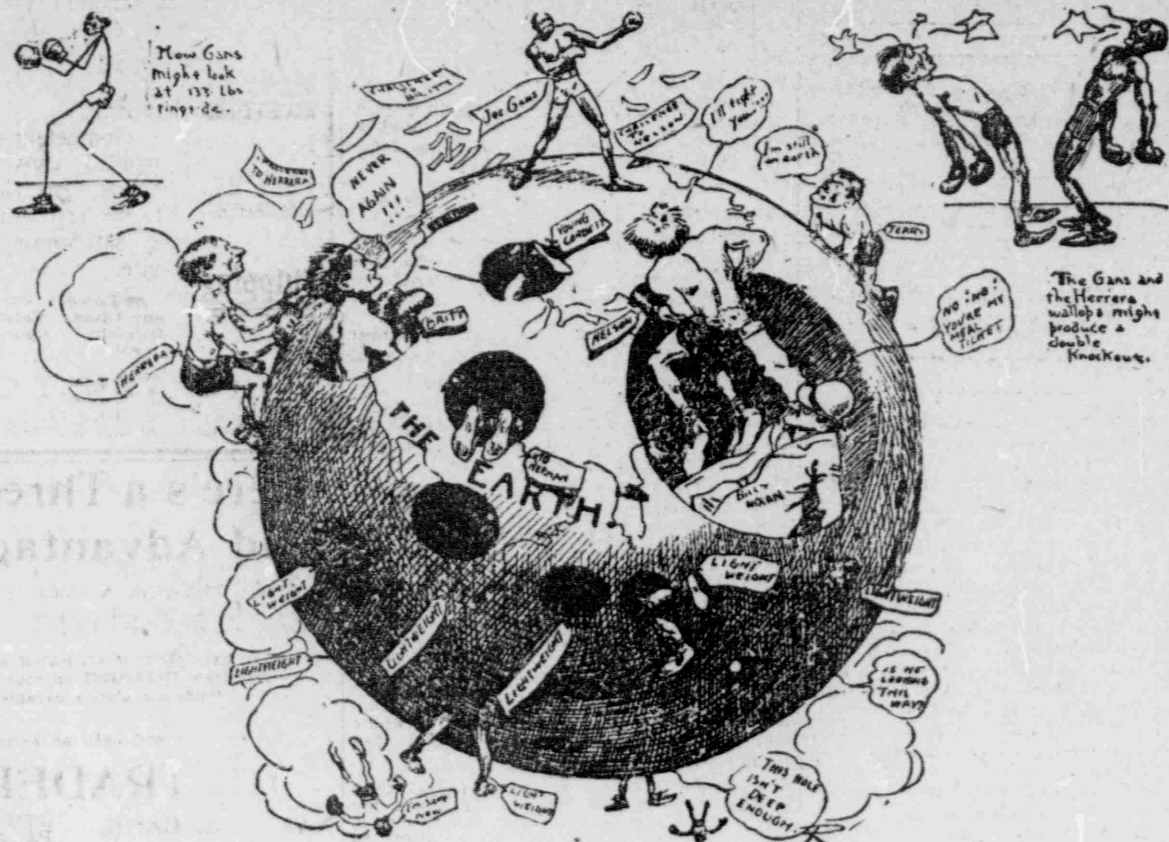

Schlosser for the association and Shedd for the soldiers did the best work. The line-up:

Y. M. C. A. Positions. Co. A.
Leach. L. F. Webb.
McClain. L. F. Shedd.
Schlosser. Center. Franklin.
Scott. L. F. Neuman.
Woodhead. R. B. Neuman.
Goals—Leach 3, Bopp 4, McClain 2, Schlosser 2, Shedd 2, Franklin 1, Neuman 1, Reiff 2. Free goals—Schlosser 1, Reiff 1. Mr. Callan. Scorer—Mr. Schmidt.

OLD PEOPLE CONSTANT
SUFFERERS IN WINTER

Most old people are great sufferers in winter. They are seldom free from pains or ailments of some description, because they are not as able to withstand the severity of the climate, with its damp, changing weather, as are their younger, more vigorous companions. Cold weather starts the old aches and pains; they suffer with chilly sensations, cold extremities, poor appetite and digestion, nervousness, sleeplessness and other afflictions peculiar to old age. With advancing years the strength and vitality of the system begin to decline. The heart action is weak and irregular, the blood becomes thin and sluggish in its circulation, and often some old blood taint that has lain dormant in the system for years begins to manifest itself. A wart or pimple becomes a troublesome sore or ulcer, skin diseases break out, or the slight rheumatic pains felt in younger days now cause sleepless nights and hours of agony. There is no reason why old age should not be healthy and free from disease if the blood is kept pure and the system strong, and this can be done with S. S. S. It is a medicine that is especially adapted to old people, because it is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, selected for their purifying, healing and building-up properties, and is very mild and gentle in its action. S. S. S. warms and reinvigorates the sluggish blood so that it moves with more rapidity, and clears it of all impurities and poisons. As this rich, healthy stream circulates through the body every part of the system is built up, the appetite and digestion improve, the heart action increases and the diseases and discomforts of old age pass away. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, and all troubles arising from diseased blood.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Startling Results of One Challenge.

Columbias Repudiate
Lieut. Crawford's ActionClaim His Hearing of Basketball Case Was Star Chamber Proceeding—Want Other
Rough Contests Investigated.

Evidently the action taken by Lieut. J. W. Crawford, president of the District Basketball League, in trying the cases of several members of the Carroll Institute and Epiphany Chapel teams, named, Howell, Kerry, Rogers, Creamer and Evans, for the part they took in the fight which occurred in the Carroll-Epiphany game a few weeks ago, is not satisfactory to the members of the Columbia Athletic Club.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the club recently, it was decided that this action was unfair in view of the fact that "scraps" have occurred in other games this season, and no action was taken by the league officials. Accordingly, M. E. O'Connor, as president of the club, has written the following open letter to Lieut. Crawford, stating the view taken by the Columbia club in the matter:

Mr. O'Connor's Letter.

"Lieut. J. W. Crawford,
"Dear Sir: At a meeting of the board of directors of the Columbia Athletic Club, I was directed to inform you that the club wishes to withdraw its name from any agreement that was made regarding the expenses of the members, and in the future we will go as far as the A. A. U. will permit.

"As a member of the Washington City Basketball League, I would ask you why some action was not taken on the three games in which the Y. M. C. A. took part, and which the papers described as roughhouse games—Ordway, first game; Carroll and a short while ago, the Ordways again. It seems to me very strange that you should take no notice of some of the games and then ask Dr. Grant to suspend some other men for the same thing.

"And you had no authority according to our rules to recommend such action. Instead of calling a league meeting and taking some action, the president chose to hold a star meeting and take any action as saw fit.

"While it does not hurt our club, I always want to see fair play, and I say this because you led the public to believe that you acted as vice president of the league.

"Very respectfully,
"M. E. O'CONNOR,
"514 Second street northwest."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"Kid is anxious to get back at Deshler. The first thing that handicapped the kid was the fact that they made the boys box clean break. Every day knows that the Washington boy's long suit is fighting. With that taken away, he was working at a great disadvantage, and it so bothered him that his long range work was placed at a lower level than usually.

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

"I am in communication with Deshler and his manager, and hope to get him to come down and meet the kid in a fifteen-round bout. The rules must be straight, protect one's self at all times."

WASHINGTON SCHOOL
ON TOME SCHEDULEArmy and Navy Preps Will Play Port
Deposit Team—Central May Arrange Game.

The Jacob Tome Institute, of Port Deposit, Md., has completed its baseball schedule, with the exception of minor midweek games. It embraces schools of Baltimore, Washington, and Philadelphia, and gives assurance of good baseball on the Port Deposit campus.

The only local team which appears on the schedule is the Army and Navy Prep School, which has always had a strong aggregation to represent it on the diamond. Another game which will be of interest to local amateur fans is that with the Episcopal High School, of Alexandria, Va. This school and Central High have been rivals on the ball field for years, and if the Central management succeeds in arranging a game with the Tome nine the Washington and Virginia high schools will be able to get a line on each other, which they could not otherwise do.

The schedule:

April 7—Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, at Port Deposit.

April 14—Army and Navy Preparatory School of Washington, at Port Deposit.

April 21—Franklin and Marshall Academy, at Port Deposit.

April 28—The High School, at Pottstown, Pa.

May 5—Haverford School, at Port Deposit.

May 9—Cecil County High School, at Elkton, Md.

May 11—No game (fourth annual interschool meet).

May 18—Moravian Parochial School, at Port Deposit.

May 25—Episcopal High School, of Alexandria, Va., at Port Deposit.

June 2—Banks' Business College, at Port Deposit.

Manager Mike Finn, once a resident of Natick, has arrived in Nashville, Tenn., and will at once take up his work there as manager of the baseball team of that city.

Charles M. Hastings, who umpired in the New England league last season, is drilling old wells in West Virginia, but is ready to take hold of the indicator again the coming season.

Manager Fred Lake, of the Lowell baseball club, would like to hear from any first-class minor league players who are not yet signed for next season. He can be addressed at the Arlington House, Lowell.

Catcher Henry Peltz has sent his contract to Barney Dreyfus, and says that he only has to wait to take on a pound of flesh this winter but that he is as fast as ever. He mourns the loss of his club.

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

Personal Comment on Men and
Things in the Field of Sports

BOXING.

Jimmy Walsh, the bantamweight champion of New England, may get a chance to show the San Francisco sports just what he can do in the squared circle. Jimmy Coffroth is anxious to hitch up Walsh with Abe Attell for twenty rounds on February 21, and has wired both fighters his terms.

Lenny Yanger, the featherweight of the Middle West, and Kid Broad, of Cleveland, have been matched for ten rounds at catch weights, on Monday night next before the Indianapolis Athletic Club of Indianapolis.

Jack Clancy, of California, and Jack Williams, of Philadelphia, are to meet at the Broadway Athletic Club of Philadelphia, tonight.

Owen Zeigler, the former Quaker City lightweight, who has opened a school of physical culture at Youngstown, Ohio, will be seen in another battle on February 5, in Buffalo. He is to meet "Cy" Flynn, the Buffalo fighter who knocked out Gus Gardner in the fourth round on Monday night.

Harry Jones and Billy Kolb, both of Philadelphia, fought six fierce rounds at Wilmington, Del., last night. Kolb having a shade the better of the contest.

Jimmy Gardner, of Lowell, Mass., who up to the time he met defeat at the hands of Mike (Twin) Sullivan, was looked on as a star at his weight, will try his hand in a six-round fight on Monday night, when he will clash with Young Ernie, of the Washington Sporting Club, of Philadelphia.

Buddy Ryan and Jack Dougherty, both of Philadelphia, fought eight rounds, Dougherty, while a new comer, knocked out every man he has faced.

George Gunther, welterweight champion of Australia, and Joe Blackburn, of Philadelphia, fought ten rounds at Newcastle, Pa., last night before a large crowd. While no decision was given, the Philadelphia had the better of the fight and was fresh at the end. Blackburn seemed to be trying hard for a knockout in the last round, but failed to land.

BASEBALL.

Joe Rickert, formerly of the Worcester array, has removed the anxiety of Atlanta by signing to play there next season.

Cincinnati manufactures from 5,000 to 7,000 balls daily, and the Cotton States league has adopted a ball made in that city.

"One more oval," says President Herrmann, of the Cincinnati club, "and then we will be ready to play ball. A catcher is wanted."

Louie Bacon is to lose the Troy franchise and it is to go to Jack O'Brien, formerly of the Boston Americans, and to Ed Rabbett.

The Southern Baseball League has selected three of its umpires—Dan Pfeiffer, W. F. Buckley, of Rochester, N. Y., and F. E. Rulderham.

The colt pitchers and catchers of the Phillies may go to Savannah a week ahead of the regular team. The regulars will go March 2 or March 3.

Manager Mike Finn, once a resident of Natick, has arrived in Nashville, Tenn., and will at once take up his work there as manager of the baseball team of that city.

Charles M. Hastings, who umpired in the New England league last season, is drilling old wells in West Virginia, but is ready to take hold of the indicator again the coming season.

Manager Fred Lake, of the Lowell baseball club, would like to hear from any first-class minor league players who are not yet signed for next season. He can be addressed at the Arlington House, Lowell.

Catcher Henry Peltz has sent his contract to Barney Dreyfus, and says that he only has to wait to take on a pound of flesh this winter but that he is as fast as ever. He mourns the loss of his club.

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

W. A. Fraser, author of racing stories and a turf enthusiast, looks for Montreal to become a great racing point in the near future. The best people in Montreal are back in the new track, "and they are showing the right sort of interest. They expect to have a first class plant in every particular, and it is sure to be a splendid addition to the second circuit."

AGRICULTURE WON
FROM POSTOFFICE

The scoring last night in the different bowling leagues was nothing out of the ordinary. In the scheduled 25-25-25 Jones, of the Plate Printers' Philadelphia quint, was high, with 235, while in the match game between the Palace trio and Acme, Krauss' 235 was high.

In the Departmental League, Agriculture won the first two from Post-office, and among the 25-25-25, Reserves took the first and ripped the next two to Morocco. Harrison and Browning, of the Real Estate, lost the match game to the Lawyers, and St. Louis was taken into Philadelphia camp for three in the Plate Printers' league.

The Cowboy five lost the first game to the Pressroom aggregation, but came back strong in the second and third, which it won easily. The match game brought out some good scores, Krauss, of the Palace three, rolling five straight games of 200 or over. Palace won from Acme with a total of 3,967 pins to the latter's 3,823. In the District Duckpin League, Eureka won three from Arlington easily.

AMATEUR ATHLETICS.

The new plan of the Intercollegiate Athletic Association, of dividing the profits of the championships among the colleges, with the distance to come as a factor, will be a boon for the small colleges. A number of even considerable institutions have been deterred from sending teams on account of the expense.

The Daily Princetonian printed the following news item last week: "The regular practice of the basketball squad was held yesterday afternoon in the gymnasium. Only two members of the regular team reported, the others being prevented from playing on account of injuries received in recent games. Perhaps it is time to try reform in basketball. Football should not alone bear the brunt of the present hysterical crusade."

G. F. O. LEAGUE.

Reserves	1st.	2d.	3d.
Niehuss	184	154	169
Norbeck	222	172	141
Long	174	158	199
Atkin	139	126	184
Walsh	202	181	192
Totals	918	871	835

Morocco	1st.	2d.	3d.
Crass	136	195	188
Herbeck	154	204	187
Watt	171	159	161
Westhoff	154	180	173
Conroy	138	161	186
Totals	783	929	854

REAL ESTATE LEAGUE.

Harrison & Browning	1st.	2d.	3d.
Gould	158	125	169
Hill	155	153	159
Stewart	129	142	169
Bontz	158	192	137
Browning	117	177	168
Totals	730	870	793

PL